

ALTA Announces - January 2009

The Alberta Library Trustees Association held their Board of Directors Meeting in Calgary on January 17th and 18th.

Directors discussed upcoming Trustee Education Workshops, of which there are two confirmed and three others possible.

The Fall 2008 Trustee Voice has been sent out to ALTA members, and is available online at the ALTA website at www.librarytrustees.ab.ca . The upcoming Spring 2009 Trustee Voice will be available in both print and online prior to the Alberta Library Conference.

The Alberta Library Conference registration is open, and registration is online at the www.albertalibraryconference.com website.

Online Trustee Education modules are available on the ALTA website, and a new module on strategic planning is presently being produced.

Please plan to attend the ALTA Annual General Meeting being held at the Alberta Library Conference. A Trustee Forum will be held immediately prior to the ACM. Check the conference schedule for time and location.
